

Buxton Offers Businessman's Viewpoint to City Administration

B. C. Buxton, a resident and property owner here since 1927, has never before sought public office, but now he feels that "this is the time for a businessman to help a business administration" and thus he is a candidate for election to the city council April 14.

Born in the old Virginia country town of Falls Church, Buxton has had a well-rounded business career, during which he always ended up with an executive position, the last one in the east was the vice-presidency of the Apperson automobile plant in Kokomo, Ind., where he was in charge of factory operations. He is now president of the Torrance Rotary Club, vice-president of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board and active in the reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce.

He says he would like to see the new Chamber organized so it would represent all the people and "really be the voice of the people for this community. It may be that the new Chamber will accomplish one of the things greatly needed in Torrance and that is 'More Torrance Unity.'"

Food Stamp Plan Revised In County

Only those public assisted households in Los Angeles county that have been recertified by the Los Angeles County Department of Public Assistance are eligible to take part in the Cotton and Food Stamp Plans.

Recertification of all public assisted households has been in progress in Los Angeles county since December of last year. Some 34,608 households comprising approximately 100,000 persons have been recertified to participate in these programs.

Because of the limited funds available to the Agricultural Marketing Administration for the operation of these programs, it is necessary that the privilege of participating be extended first to public assisted households in most urgent need of help.

Therefore, in keeping with the purposes of the programs, the county has determined eligibility within prescribed limits based on the number of persons in each public assisted household and the total household income.

While it is recognized that some needy households are excluded from participation under this procedure — others even more urgently in need of help are enabled to benefit as a result. Eligibles are permitted to buy Food Stamps monthly between minimum and maximum amounts determined by the size and income of the household.

With the food stamps they buy regularly each month, they receive free half again as many additional stamps.

The orange colored Food Stamps they buy may be used in registered grocery stores to buy any food they eat at home. The blue Food Stamps they get free with the purchased stamps may be used in these stores to buy specified foods currently designated by the Secretary of Agriculture. The Blue Stamp Food lists for the month of April includes: Butter, shell eggs, dry edible beans, hominy (corn) grits, wheat flour and whole wheat (graham) flour, enriched wheat flour, corn meal, dried prunes, fresh apples, fresh oranges, fresh pears, fresh grapefruit and all fresh vegetables (including potatoes).

HAROLD T. MORAN, S. F. noted hobo and editor of "Prospect for Panhandlers"—"Quite often when I was young, but with decreasing frequency as the years go by, I have been offered jobs. Otherwise, life has treated me kindly."

MAJ. THOMAS E. STONE, editor "Infantry Journal"—"Map-reading doesn't seem a war-time art to the layman. But it's like a tourmister—if you ever do need it, you need it badly and right now."

MRS. CLAUDE LOVAT FRAZER, London fire warden—"California might copy our harvest time plan. Children stood watch in every field to deal with incendiary bombs while the bumper crop was brought in to safety. Every English child over 12 can put out a burning bomb."

EDMOND A. RIEDER, manager Palace hotel, S. F.—"To my notion, the war crisis has heightened the attractiveness of real estate as a California investment. It is soundly protective against inflation, for one thing—and the heaviest bomb made can't destroy a piece of land."

FINAL STANDINGS

Team	W	L	Pct.
Narbonne	9	1	.900
San Pedro	7	3	.700
Banning	7	3	.700
Gardena	5	5	.500
El Segundo	2	8	.200
Torrance	0	10	.000

As the 1942 Marine League baseball campaign closed last Friday, two features of the season stand out—Sam Snyder's masterful pitching for the Narbonne Gauchos, who clinched the title weeks ago, and the dismal showing made by the Torrance Tartars, who failed to get in the win column. The results of the final games: Narbonne 10, Torrance 0; San Pedro 5, Gardena 2, and Banning 3, El Segundo 2.

Snyder, who carved himself a niche in high school baseball's Hall of Fame March 24 by pitching a no hit, no run, no man to first game against San Pedro, was still in tip-top form last Friday, as he limited the Tartars to a single blow while his mates pounded out 14 bingles for an easy triumph.

Narbonne's ace twirler also set the batting pace for the Gauchos when he starred against San Pedro. His double drove in two runs and he scored on Bur-gan's single. Snyder then pooled out a double to send over a pair of scores, thus getting credit for four of the five runs batted in.

Cutting down the San Pedro batters at the rate of three per inning with clock-like regularity, Snyder kept the sacks clear and permitted only three balls to be batted out of the infield. He fanned 14 hitters in the sixth inning route and whiffed nine straight hitters in the first four frames, starting with the second batter of the first inning.

FREE CITY DIRECTORIES

A number of copies of the last Torrance city directory are available without charge at the Chamber of Commerce office in the city hall. Mrs. Margaret Kelsey, secretary, said she would be glad to issue the informative booklets to all new residents of the community who apply for them at the city clerk's office.

Alert eyes guard our skies
Enemy planes must be clear and alert. Good eyesight is important in the outstanding service being performed by the patriotic civilian men and women in the Aircraft Warning Service.

Protect eyes at home with good lighting

Good lighting is an important aid in doing any job well. Without it, eyestrain and fatigue are likely to result. Your family's eyes should be protected with light that makes seeing easy and protects precious sight. Have lots of properly shaded light at every place in your home where night activities involve close seeing. Sight-saving light costs so little and means so much.
